

Serendipity Labs St. Louis | Clayton

Parking at: 8112 Maryland Avenue, Suite 400, St. Louis, MO 63105

Our address is 8112 Maryland Avenue (gray building on the corner of Brentwood and Maryland-Herbie's is a restaurant in our building). Visitor parking is accessible off Maryland Avenue between the gray building and the red brick building. Pull into the alley and make a hard left into a single level garage underneath the gray building. At the gate, retrieve a ticket, then the gate will rise, please hold on to this paper. We will provide a validation at the end of your tour. Please park in any spot marked Visitor. There is also street meter parking available. Make sure you do not pull into the red brick garage or park in one of the reserved parking spots in the gray garage.

Once you have parked:

If you parked in the garage: take the elevator in the center, directly up to the 4th floor, Suite 400.

If you street park: You can take the exterior stairs and they'll bring you into the building lobby where you can also find the elevators.

We will meet you in the lab café as soon as you exit the elevator on our floor and look forward to meeting you!
